Master Plumber Testifies of Threatening Advice to Join Ring.

CALLED EMPLOYERS UNION

Letter Read to Court Said It Forced Support of In-purpose of "apportioning work" and hig jobs was likened to "an employers" three codefendants before Supreme he Court Justice John V. McAvoy, In this ietter Milton Schnaler, master plumber, declared his intention of quitting the "the labor union principle of ompelling competence to support incompetence."

The letter was read just before the prosecution of the professional organizer came to an end and before counsel for the four defendants made their formal motions for a dismissar of the indictment. Those motions were dented by Justice McAvoy, and the work of presenting the defendants' side of the case will begin when the trial is resumed on Monday morning.

plans for the erection of monstrous apartment houses on Riverside Drive and Park avenue.

The Drive project will go up on the block between 182d and 183d streets, a plot of thirty lots, 204 feet on the Drive, 375 feet on 163d street and 355 feet on 163d street. The land was sold yesterday by Harris & Maurice Mandelbaum and Fisher & Irving I. Lewine to a corporation which announces that it will at once start work on the apartment house. The project will cost upward of $3,000,000.

The brokers, Charles Griffith & Eugene Moses & Co., who made the sale, have also procured for the purchasers a building loan of $1,250,000 from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, supplemented by long term amortized mortgages.
